

Eight Killed in Towboat Explosion

THAW MAY BE DEPORTED

SEVERAL BUILDINGS ARE CONDEMNED

Inspector Connor and Ald. Cummings Issue Orders to Bennett Bros. and Wheelock Heirs

Inspector of Buildings Francis A. Connor is right on the job, and he is making a crusade against the old shacks which are so numerous in this city. Yesterday he went on a tour of inspection and in the course of his travels he stepped into a building owned by Bennett Bros. & Co. in Payne street, and the result of his investigation was that the building was condemned and ordered torn down and removed, and accordingly the following notice was sent to the town:

Lowell, Mass., Aug. 29, 1913. Bennett Bros. & Co., Payne Street, City.

You are hereby notified in pursuance of an ordinance of the city of Lowell made and enacted, that the wooden building of which you are the owners, located in the rear of Payne street in the city of Lowell, is in such dilapidated condition that it has become a menace to the public safety and so endangers the public.

You are ordered, therefore, to remove or take down such building, or cause the same to be removed or taken down within one week from the receipt by you of this notice, otherwise you shall hold yourselves amenable to the ordinance made and provided in such case.

Respectfully,
Francis A. Connor,
Inspector of Buildings.
Lawrence Cummings,
Commissioner Public Property and Licenses.

Farragut House Condemned

The inspector in company with Commissioner Cummings of the same department this morning inspected the old Farragut house in Central street, and the result is that a notice will be sent to the owners, the Wheelock heirs, to thoroughly repair the building. All the tenants of this building with the exception of the harbor whose place is located on the first floor, are moving out, and soon the place will be almost entirely vacated. The inspectors found that the floors and walls of the structure are in a very dilapidated condition, while the wooden addition in the rear is a menace to public safety. This part will be ordered taken down, while in the other parts of the building considerable alterations will be ordered.

JEROME JUBILANT OVER NEW ATTACK

Secures Writ of Habeas Corpus—Eleventh Hour Move to Defeat Thaw's Lawyers

SHERBROOKE, Que., Aug. 30.—Harry K. Thaw will be produced in court here again Tuesday morning next on a writ of habeas corpus obtained today in behalf of Chief of Police Bourdreaux of Coaticook, who arrested him after his escape from Mattawan.

Eleventh Hour Move

Superior Judge Hutchinson granted the writ on the application of Samuel Jacobs, chief counsel for the New York state interests. It was an eleventh hour move taken to defeat Thaw's lawyers, who have succeeded in keeping him in jail safe from the immigration authorities. Those of the Thaw lawyers who were in town, Charles D. White and Harry Fraser, bitterly opposed the application, but Judge Hutchinson said he would throw the matter out in open court Tuesday morning.

Bourdreaux prayed for the writ on the ground that as the original captor of Thaw he might be liable to damage should Thaw's arrest prove illegal.

William T. Jerome, who worked out this latest attack, was jubilant. He hopes that the writ will be sustained.

and that on Tuesday Thaw will be in the hands of the department of immigration for deportation to Vermont.

Came Trooping Back

Immigration officers who had left Sherbrooke yesterday came trooping back to town early today on the strength of a report that counsel representing the state of New York had set on foot a movement to get Harry K. Thaw in court perhaps today on a writ of habeas corpus, thus taking a step his own counsel had abandoned on Wednesday after a court battle.

Any citizen may apply for a writ of habeas corpus when he thinks a prisoner is detained illegally and as Thaw is locked in the Sherbrooke jail on an

THE OHIO RIVER SCENE OF TRAGEDY

Boat Was Towing Fleet of Barges When Boilers Exploded—Injured Rescued From River

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 30.—Captain Thomas Flaherty, Pilot Harry Donaldson and six of the crew of the towboat Alice were killed this morning when the boilers of the Alice exploded in the Ohio river at Coropolis, Pa. Six other men were injured.

Many of the crew were rivermen of the type whose real names are never known to their companions or the officers of the boat and for that reason difficulty was experienced in getting a complete list of the dead.

The Alice, a towboat belonging to a sand company of Pittsburgh was towing a fleet of barges, and was within a thousand feet of the lock at dam number 2 when the boilers let go.

The men who were not instantly killed or badly injured rushed forward but so quickly did the boat settle that within ten minutes nothing but her stacks were visible and the survivors were struggling in the stream.

Body Taken From Hull

Later in the day the body of Mrs. Mills, a chambermaid, was recovered from the shattered hull of the boat. One of the boilers was located in the sand in Neville island, fully 1600 feet away.

Several boats put off from the shore and rescued the injured. Of the crew of 14 men not one is known to have escaped death or injury.

TERRIFIC STORM LAST NIGHT

Swept the City and Did Much Damage to Trees

Nearly an Inch of Rain Fell in About an Hour in This City

A terrific thunder storm swept this city and the surrounding towns between one and two o'clock this morning and although no serious damage has been reported, the storm was one of the most severe that has struck this part of the country for years. The lightning was continuous and the rainfall was very heavy while it lasted, nearly an inch of water falling during the progress of the storm. The Locks & Canals company gave the exact depth as $1. one-hundredths.

Starting with a light rain the clouds soon broke and the slumbers were startled by continuous peals of thunder and sharp flashes of lightning. The amount of falling rain increased and the flashing of lightning continued for about an hour. Several trees on the South common and in other parts of the city were struck by the lightning and in the country towns many trees were riven and uprooted. It was the impression of many that large buildings had been struck by the lightning, the sound was so terrific, but fortunately the buildings of this city escaped.

Several washouts were reported this morning from different parts of the city and many of the roads in the outskirts were damaged. Toward morning the thunder clouds rolled away and after a while the sun came out, although heavy clouds hung here and there all day, threatening a fresh outbreak.

JOHN LIND HAS SENT NO WORD

And His Plans are Unknown by Officials at Washington

No Change in the Mexican Situation Reported Today

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The Mexican situation was unchanged today. John Lind still was waiting at Vera Cruz, and no advices of his plans had come to Washington. Secretary Bryan, returning to town for a few hours from an over-night lecture tour, left again on another to return tomorrow. Secretary Tumulty left for a week-end with his family in Jersey. With President Wilson at the summer capitol at Cornish, N. H., arrangements were made to transmit any important developments to him there.

Mr. Bryan, after the president's departure, received a message from Mr. Lind declaring the situation unchanged.

Indications pointed strongly to the view that the policy of the United States for the next few days will be a waiting one, while strict neutrality is enforced and Americans are urged to leave Mexico. Those who take that viewpoint to Pres. Wilson's declaration to congress that the actual situation of the authorities in Mexico City will presently be revealed and that the "steady pressure of moral force will before many days break the barriers of pride and prejudice down."

Satisfied and Tranquil

Senor Sebastian Camacho, president of the Mexican senate, has sent a telegram to James A. Schrimser of New York, president of the Mexican Telegraph Co., requesting him to protest to President Wilson against the withdrawal of American citizens from Mexico. The message made public here, today declares that the American colony in Mexico "is satisfied and tranquil" and "tremendous damages" will result from its withdrawal.

No Comparison

The light, airy, sanitary offices of the New Sun building compared with those of any other office building in Lowell are so much more up to date that not only the occupants but their patrons are delighted with them.

SPEAKER CLARK RAPS REPUBLICANS

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 30.—Speaker Champ Clark arrived from Washington today to deliver speeches at Unity this afternoon and at Skowhegan tonight in the interest of William R. Pattangall, the democratic candidate for congressman from the third Maine district at the special election on Sept. 8. He arrived on the New York express.

Bells Republicans

After devoting some time to outlining the policies of the democratic party in the future, Mr. Clark, in his speech at Unity said:

"We declared that the works of the republicans for 16 years were not for the best interests of the country and should not be satisfactory to the people. The people took us at our word and thrust the republicans into outer darkness, where there is weeping and wailing, gnashing of teeth and a great deal of profane swearing."

"At Baltimore, in our platform, we made a multitude of promises. In my judgment the most important promise made at Baltimore was to revise the tariff downward. That promise is almost an accomplished fact. Our tariff bill will in all human probability be upon the statute books before the middle of September. In my judgment it is a good tariff bill."

"It is not precisely as I would have written it, I feel and write blanches to write a tariff bill. It is not exactly as anyone would have written it if he

FOOTBALL SEASON IS AT HAND

And the Coach Will be King on Campus and Gridiron — Yale
Plans Early Start

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—During the next three months the football coach will rule supreme upon college campuses and gridiron. To the candidates for places on the eleven his word will be law, and to the non-playing student he will be the one person in whose hand rests the future of the university.

The position of football coach is not one in which all is acclaim and glory. The task of developing a winning team calls for serious and hard work, even under the most favorable conditions. Even with an abundance of satisfactory material the coach must be given to the selection of just the right combination is but a small portion of the work. The first and second teams must be carefully drilled and trained and in the end, if defeat comes in the final and big game of the season, the coach reaps all the blame. If the reverse is true his share of the glory is small and fleeting.

Without the football coach, however, football would fall far short of the scientific game that it is today. Every college and university has either an alumni coaching system or an alumnus of some other institution teaching the young men how to tackle, dodge, fall on the ball and the numberless other individual and combination secrets that go to complete the gridiron education of the player. Of the several hundred colleges in various parts of the United States less than fifteen per cent try to play football with the coach left out. Even the leading high schools and preparatory academies have their paid coaches.

All the football mentors will have their charges at work within the next two or three weeks and the land will resound with the thud of boot against ball and body against turf. Yale has planned an early start, and Captain Ketchum will take a squad of players to Sturbridge, Mass., on Monday for preliminary practice before the New Haven university formally opens its doors for another scholastic year. Coach Houghton, of Harvard, is more deliberate as he is a champion, and he will not bother his charges about him at Cambridge until September 15. Captain Storer, however, saw to it that every promising player took at least one football away with him at the beginning of the summer vacation, and the men doubtless were instructed to report in condition if they hoped to make the eleven of 1913.

Cornell will start its second season September 16 under the coaching of Dr. Al Sharpe. Under the new regime at Ithaca Cornell can be counted upon as a factor in eastern football this season. Princeton, 100, plans for an early start, while the advent of George Brooke at Pennsylvania will certainly live up to the Quaker campaign.

In the middle west Coach Stagg, of Chicago, hopes to recapture the conference championship. Coach Yost, of Michigan, is looking forward to eastern triumphs, while Illinois hopes for great improvement under its new football mentor, Bob Zupke.

ROBINSON, GIANT MAKER, AND LINEUP

OF LEADERS IN NATIONAL LEAGUE, RACE

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Baseball players take their hats off to Robinson, the Giant maker. He is the chief coach of the New York Giants and, next to McGraw, the manager, is the most valuable man on the firing line in building up the team and keeping it at top notch. Robinson is generally seen on the third base line during a game, and his judgment is considered the best. Robinson is here shown with the regular lineup of the Giants as they will likely face the Athletics in the world's series provided those two teams practically draw to a close next Monday, and many games will be played throughout the city on the holiday. Every lot that is unoccupied and where there is room for a diamond will be converted into a ball park. Stones and rocks will substitute for the sacks of the leagues and the game will go merrily on—unless the umpire makes a doubtful decision, that is to say, a decision that is liable to be questioned. Then the game will be postponed until the umpire can be contacted not to repeat his slip. If the side whom the decision favored see fit to interfere the game will, of course, be held up for longer period.

FOURTEEN CARS IN TROPHY RACE

Big Crowd on Hand to Cheer the Starters at Elgin—Bill Endicott
First to Get Away

ELGIN, Ill., Aug. 30.—Fourteen cars got away this morning in the annual 201 mile grind over the eight-mile course here for the Elgin National trophy. A larger field and larger machines than appeared in yesterday's race added to the interest in the contest, and a crowd exceeding 10,000 lined the track to cheer the starters. Bill Endicott in a Case was first man away. The other starters were: Mason, Rickerbach, Mason, B. K. Miffland, Mercer, Spencer Wishart, Strutz, Gil Anderson.

Marmon, Joe Dawson, Erwin Special, Erwin Bergdoll, Mason, William Haupt, Esora, Harry Grant, Keaton, Bob Burman, Mercer, Ralph De Palma, Nyberg, Harry Mudder, Voll, Otto Henderson, Nyberg, Harry Endicott. The Delta car, which Dawson piloted into second place yesterday, was withdrawn. One of the wheels has a cracked hub and two have buckled rims from running on flat tires. Dawson, De Palma, Grant and Anderson were the favorites with the crowd.

Athletes and Athletics

Wrenn and Maloney seem to be as far off as ever from proving which swimmer is the better. Maloney wants to swim in salt water, and Wrenn pretends to show his speed in this vicinity, so there you are. Each is doing a lot of talking, and it would seem that they had better get together and make some kind of a compromise or quit talking.

With the Lowell pitchers going well the 1913 pennant for first position in the New England league race looks assured for Manager Gray's men. The pitching box has been the local team's weakness from the start of the season, and now that this weak point has been converted into one of the strongest, twirling staffs on the circuit the fans need not worry much over the outcome of the struggle. Finnegan, Zieser, Henderson and Maybom are all working in tip-top form.

The report that Jack Johnson has at last agreed to fight Sam Langford has not been confirmed yet, but it looks as though the bout would take place soon. Johnson is in somewhat straightened circumstances and needs money badly, or he would never consent to swap punches with the Boston Tar Baby.

The cancellation of the Army-Navy football game is causing a great deal of comment among football critics. This game has been a factor in the gridiron season for so long that its loss would be felt by the sporting public. There is a strong possibility that the game may be played after all, for all the grades on either side of the argument are up in arms over the cancellation.

With the close of the baseball season drawing near, the new edition of football rules are being snapped up and devoured by the devotees of the plucky sport. Already orders have come forth from the heads of the big university camps, and before another month has passed many diamonds will be overshadowed by the goal posts.

Outfielder Rehg, the outfielder President McAleer is reported to have paid $16,000 for, will have a tough time breaking into the Red Sox outer garden. With Hooper playing one of his best seasons and Speaker the same old reliable, Lewis looks to be the man picked for dismissal if the youngster makes good. Rehg is at present with the St. Paul club of the American association.

Lowell plays two games away from home next week, and both of these contests will be played at the Lynn grounds. Lynn plays here on Wednesday and Lowell goes there on Tuesday and Friday. Worcester will appear at Spaulding park on Thursday, and New Bedford will be the attraction at the ball park on Saturday.

Who says we won't win that pennant? Nothing but accidents of the worst nature can keep the flag away from the local team this year, and we are not even afraid of the bad baseball breaks. With a lead of over two games over Worcester and both Lawrence and Portland going stale after their flash in the pan we fail to see where Lowell can be beaten out of the flag.

The drafting season closes tomorrow and up to date the majors have taken none of the Lowell players. This fact is fully appreciated by the management, for the drafting price paid for players is only $1200, and seldom is a man sold for as low a sum. The drafting price has been raised from $750.

The reserved seats at the local office which have been on sale for the game in Lawrence Monday morning have nearly all been disposed of. A large crowd will also accompany the down river team on its trip to Lowell in the afternoon. Pieper assures the Lawrence fans that his team is still in the race, and enthusiasm has taken a brace in Lawrence since the double header with Portland.

Young Sheppard of New York has been matched to appear before the members of the Triangle A. A. this fall. This boxer defeated Jimmy Walsh over in the big city last winter and has a big reputation. Sheppard will post a substantial side bet to beat any 122-pounder in the country.

Burkett has four hard games before him. Today Worcester plays two games with Lawrence, and on Monday Portland will appear twice on the Worcester diamond. By the same token, Lawrence will be a tired team when they meet Manager Gray's men on Monday.

like a colt. His sight and hearing are unimpaired while his memory is accuracy itself. Capt. Downs was born in Brattleboro, Me., and came to Lowell when a young man. He afterward returned to Maine but came back 40 years ago and settled in Westford. He has been married 66 years and his estimable wife is as hale and hearty as himself. He has two children living. Capt. Downs is an authority on the early history of Westford and the neighboring towns and as a story teller has few equals.

Grooming Day
MARBLEHEAD, Aug. 30.—Grooming day for the six sander yachts which will sail in the German-American races next week found all of the boats on the ways in the hands of workmen today. Five of the yachts were hauled out at local yards, while the Sprig was hauled up at Manchester, on the other side of Salem bay. Although the underbodies and sides of the boats looked bright the polished surfaces were given another rubbing by experienced woodworkers, and two plane polishers spent the entire day in smoothing the hull of the Sprig. The yachts will remain out of water until after a few hours before the first day's race is started at 11 a. m.

JUST WHAT YOU PAY FOR

The other day a well-dressed man was passing on the street and a friend stopping him, said, "Bill, that's a nice suit you have on." Bill answered, "yes, I like it very much." The friend said, "looks like it was made for you. What did it cost?" Bill told him and the fellow says, "that's more than I pay for a suit. I never pay more than $15." Bill replied, "you look it, Jim, begging your pardon." Jim says, "I guess you're right. Bill. A fellow gets usually what he pays for in this world. Did you ever stop to think of that, that a fellow usually gets what he pays for? It is true in everything you buy, and in no goods is it more noticeable than in clothes. When you wear your clothes they are always on exhibition and your friends size them, you bet. The difference between Bill and Jim is that Bill buys good clothes and always appears well dressed, while Jim invests in cheap ones, and, as Bill told him, "he looks it." Now the queer part of this comparison is that in the long run Jim's clothes cost him more than Bill's. I make Bill's.

IMPERATOR AT DOCK SHOWING LIST FROM WATER IN HOLD AFTER FIRE

Capt. HANS RUSER

ARROW INDICATES STOREROOM COMPARTMENT WHERE FIRE STARTED

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—After the fire on board the Emperor, the world's greatest ship, Hamburg-American officials announced that the mammoth ship would sail on schedule time. Hardly had the flames died out and the smoke cleared away before the company had men at work scrubbing and cleaning and pumping the water out of the hold, which gave the ship a heavy list to starboard. The painters were put to work, and the giants of the seas was soon in as good condition as before. When the time came for her to sail, only forty-eight hours after the blaze, there was hardly any evidence of the fire. The ship was again fully provisioned with 50,000 pounds of fresh meat. The blaze, which started in the provision room, cost the life of Second Officer Karl Gobrecht, Captain Hans Ruser said that was the worst feature of the affair, as the blaze itself, although doing perhaps $50,000 damage, was not to be compared in seriousness with the loss of the second officer's life.

VERY SHORT DOCKET
Before Judge Enright
This Morning

This morning's police court was a short affair with a very limited docket. Half an hour sufficed to clean up all the cases presented before Judge Enright. Michael Korsak, adorned with a blackened optic, stood up and pleaded guilty when his case was called by Clerk Tove. Korsak was charged with drunkenness and a country man of his tried to convince Supt. Welch that he was guilty of an assault. The defendant's wife came to the assistance of her husband and, with great vehemence, declared that her husband was asleep when the other man entered their house with a bottle of whiskey. "I punched him in the eye," she said, "and then put him out of our house." Korsak was fined $15 and allowed a term of two months within which to pay it. John Lyons was given a suspended sentence of two months in the Lowell jail. Lyons was warned by the court that if he again showed up in police court he would receive a direct sentence.

Antonio Barris was foolish enough to think that he had something on Officer Joseph Conditine when the latter attempted to arrest him. However, notwithstanding Barris' pugilistic efforts he was haled into court this morning and paid a fine of $5 for his drunkenness. Probation Officer Slattery allowed five first offenders to depart without appearing before Judge Enright.

A man named McNally was charged with larceny of $77 from Walter C. Packard on the night of the firemen's muster. The case was continued.

Fred Crowley, Their Delegate, to Convention is Honored

Presented Suitcase Before Starting to Salt Lake City

Local 250 of the street railway men's union held a younging meeting at their rooms in Kunkels building last night for the purpose of giving a royal send-off to Fred Crowley, one of their number, who has been delegated to attend the international convention of the Street Railway's union which is to be held in Salt Lake City.

Mr. Crowley was presented a handsome dress suit case and smoking set and as he had no inkling of the intention of his friends, he was taken completely by surprise. Tom Cunningham made the graceful presentation speech and Mr. Crowley in responding thanked all present for their gift and the greater gift of genuine friendship it betokened.

Following the presentation of the gifts the evening was given over to songs, speeches and recitations. Among the most prominent members on the program were Pat Hammersley and Frank Bourke, the oldest motorman and conductor respectively in the em-

After the entertainment, the luncheon committee, composed of Messrs. Charles Gallagher, Edward Donnelly and Joseph Powers, served refreshments, and before the affair broke up, Mr. Crowley was wished the best success on his western trip.

$2.50 to $7.00 an Acre for Government Land That Will Raise 30 Bushels of Wheat

The United States government has decided to give over a million acres of government land up in North Eastern Montana, to citizens, under the U. S. Homestead laws, at from $2.50 to $7.00 per acre. Lands that will easily raise 20 to 30 bushels of wheat to the acre and 40 to 60 bushels of oats.

I want to tell you of the conditions under which you can get some of this land. I want to send you a map of the country and a pamphlet telling all about how and where to register. I don't have to tell you what an unusual chance this is to get a valuable farm for very little money. It's probably the last lot of government land that will be offered in this way. You have to register out there some time between Sept. 1st and 20th. So write me at once for particulars and I will tell you just what to do and will send you the map and pamphlet free. LIST OF PRECINCT OFFICERS

Announced at City Hall for the Three Political Parties—Other Matters

Commissioner Brown of the finance department has prepared a list of the precinct officers to serve at both the state and city elections, and the same was given to the press at noon, but inasmuch as the list is quite long, it will appear later. There are very few changes from last year's list, but several names were added in order to satisfy the wants of the new party, the progressive. The list contains ten names to each precinct, four republicans, four democrats and two progressives.

The board of harbor and land commissioners through its secretary, William S. McNary, has sent a letter to Mayor O'Donnell, inviting him to attend a meeting of the board to be held in Boston, Sept. 18, for the purpose of discussing and considering the subject of improvements of Massachusetts harbors, rivers and waterways.

In the letter Mr. McNary says: "The board of harbor and land commissioners cordially requests your attendance at a meeting at the office of the board, room 131, State House, Boston, Mass., on Thursday, September 18, 1913, at 11 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of discussing and considering the subject of improvements of Massachusetts harbors, rivers and waterways."

Going to Montreal
The mayor, who is a member of the American Bar association, will leave in the early part of the week for Montreal, Que., where he will attend the annual reunion of this association, which will be held from Monday to Friday inclusive. This is the first time this reunion has been held in a Canadian city, and it is expected the affair will be largely attended.

Salaries
The salaries paid out at the city treasurer's office at city hall during the present month amount to $10,056.07, while the weekly payroll for the week ending today is $21,571.23.

Park Department
Supt. Kernan of the park department put a dozen men at work cleaning the North common this morning. It was understood that the Butler Vets would leave the common in the same condition as when they took it, but probably on account of the rain the men were unable to get around to do the work. However, Supt. Kernan wanted the place in a good condition for Sunday, for this morning he put his men to work.

Trees Struck by Lightning
The severe storm that hovered over this city this morning, caused havoc on the South common. Two large beautiful elm trees on the main walk from the pond to the Casino were struck by lightning and uprooted. The debris of these beautiful trees was removed this afternoon by employees of the park department. Fortunately there was no one in the vicinity when the trees were felled.

SMART GOWNS for MIDDLE-AGED WOMEN

STREET COSTUME

AFTERNOON TOILETTE

HOW DAVID BELASCO IS SETTING THE FASHIONS FOR NEW YORK'S SMART SET

Effie Shannon's Gowns and Hats In "Years of Discretion" The Sensation of the Season.

STAGE WARDROBE RIVALING IN COST AND ELEGANCE THOSE OF ANY OF GOTHAM'S MOST FASHIONABLE MONDAINES.

The Triumph of Middle Age.

If you were to ask any New York man to name the most successful play of the current season he will answer unhesitatingly, "Years of Discretion." If you ask any New York woman who is the best dressed actress, barring none, she will answer quick as a flash, "Effie Shannon." And then, like as not, she will add of her own accord, "and the next best dressed is Alice Putnam."

The fact that both Miss Shannon and Miss Putnam are appearing in the same production, "Years of Discretion," is significant. It means that we are once more given a demonstration of the genius of David Belasco, who is not content to furnish us with the cleverest, the wittiest and most brilliantly acted play of a decade, but also the "best dressed."

One feature characterizing all the costumes worn by Miss Shannon and Miss Putnam in this comedy is that they have been designed specially for women of middle age—that is to say, for women ranging between thirty and fifty years. In "Years of Discretion" Miss Shannon plays the role of a woman who confides to forty-eight, and Miss Putnam to forty-seven. Both are elegant women of the world, both represent women of great wealth, of faultless taste. To convey this impression across the footlights and make it sink into the consciousness of the audience, David Belasco will have that something more than fine acting was necessary. Fine acting, he declared, was necessary in order to symbolize the spiritual significance of the grand old age, but in this particular instance all the fine acting in the world would be thrown away if the grand old age's costume betrayed any lapse from the eternal fitness of things. It was here that the art of Henry Bendel was commissioned. During the months that Mr. Belasco was rehearsing his players, Bendel was laboring over the designing and executing of the most sumptuous wardrobe ever worn in "society drama."

The Modesty Cloak.

It has been a long time since women in a theatrical audience have enjoyed such a sensation as that made by Miss Shannon, as Mrs. Farrell Howard, a widow from Brookline, when she appears in the first act in her now famous "Modesty Cloak." The lines of the play call for Mrs. Howard's sudden appearance in the drawing room. She has not time to don the conventional evening dress, but hastily assumes one of those negligees so dear to the heart of womankind, but alas, so frequently abused, not only on the stage, but in real life. Mrs. Farrell Howard, being, however, the elegant woman of the world, would not dream of appearing in such a garment without a more discreet covering. Hence the "Modesty Cloak," a filmy robe of blue chiffon trimmed with Bohemian lace and edged with a band of sable. A garment well named, indeed, for under its discreet shyness what more refined and modest than her negligee of flesh colored crepe inset with real lace, feathered with tiny silver roses, and run with dainty ribbons. A garment to draw a wedding ring! A garment costing more than the entire annual wardrobe of the average well-to-do woman! But Mrs. Howard wears it scarcely five minutes, disappears and returns shortly gowned for a dinner party at Sherry's.

Miss Shannon's Dinner Gown.

This gown is "built" of pink and silver brocade. The pink is the faintest pink possible, and the silver is of the tone of a dewy cobweb on which a ray of moonlight has fallen. This brocade was woven in Lyons, a special order for Mr. Belasco. The gown is short waisted, extremely décolleté, with flowing tulle sleeves. The skirt is slashed in front as far as the knee, so as to display a fascinating petticoat of silver point lace. The train is very long, but so designed that when the wearer takes it up to dance the effect is of a short dancing dress. A bunch of roses constitute the only garniture, and in her hair Miss Shannon wears a luscious rose paradise feather. As an adjunct to this wonderful gown, the actress wears a superb coat of mulberry velvet, edged with Russian fitch. The coat envelops her snugly, being tightly drawn about the figure below the hips.

Luncheon Costume.

As a luncheon gown, Miss Shannon wears a mink colored velvet, tightly draped and caught up in the back, the edge of the skirt trimmed with a band of fitch. A dainty waist through which you can see a soft shade of green when she removes her coat. The coat to match is trimmed with the same fur as on the skirt. She carries a wonderful muff of Russian fitch with a bunch of orchids. Her hat is a new creation of the same color as her gown, with six natural white paradise birds, of which there are eight kinds, and this is the rarest species.

The next gown she wears in the most seductive pink tea gown, a creation of lace, ribbons and roses, over which she wears a flowing coat, trimmed with sable. Before she puts on this lace coat she wears a little pink chiffon brocade coat trimmed with white fox. A most wonderful creation is a gown of steel brocade embroidered with tube heads. This is relieved by a bright red corsage rose and a heavenly red fan to match. In her hair she wears a simple band of diamonds. The steel gown has in front, flowing apron in front, edged with tulle of the same color. The train, which is long and graceful, going into a point, is also edged with gray tulle. In the garden scene she wears a creation of white venetian lace, just relieved with a bit of colored ribbon in the belt and a sash.

When she wears her pale pink gown she wears a short string of pearls as the only jewels.

Miss Putnam's Costumes.

Miss Putnam wears in the first act a white and black beaded dress, relieved with a bit of pink. The beads are made over a pink slip, and it gives a glow of pink to the dress. It is transparent and makes you think of a chain. The band of black beads is relieved by a scroll design of diamonds. She carries a bag to match her gown and wears a superb paradise hair ornament. Her coat is made of white beads, the border outlined with a big band of black rain drop spangles and lined with pink. The collar is edged with white fox. With this costume Miss Putnam wears

The next dress is a luncheon gown of mole brocade crepe, the style of which is somewhat Grecian in its drapery, edged with a band of ermine and a corsage softened with a relief of lace. She carries a bag of ermine, the novelty of the bag being one that can be worn as a muff as well. She wears a hat to match, with two wings of mole para-

BOMBSHELL IN THAW CASE

SEVERAL BUILDINGS
ARE CONDEMNED

Inspector Connor and Ald. Cummings Issue Orders to Bennett Bros. and Wheelock Heirs

Inspector of Buildings Francis A. Connor is right on the job, and he is making a crusade against the old shacks which are so numerous in this city. Yesterday he went on a tour of inspection and in the course of his travels he stepped into a building owned by Bennett Bros. & Co., in Payne street, and the result of his investigation was that the building was condemned and ordered torn down and removed, and accordingly the following notice was sent to the town:

hold yourselves amenable to the ordinance made and provided in such case.
Respectfully,
Francis A. Connor,
Inspector of Buildings.
Lawrence Cummings,
Commissioner Public Property and Licenses.

Farragut House Condemned

The inspector in company with Commissioner Cummings of the same department this morning inspected the old Farragut house in Central street, and the result is that a notice will be sent to the owners, the Wheelock heirs, to thoroughly repair the building. All the tenants of this building with the exception of the barber whose place is located on the first floor, are moving out and soon the place will be almost entirely vacated. The inspectors found that the floors and walls of the structure are in a very dilapidated condition, while the wooden addition in the rear is a menace to public safety. This part will be ordered taken down, while in the other parts of the building considerable alterations will be ordered.

WILLIAM POWELL MEETS SUDDEN DEATH

CONCORD, N. H., Aug. 30.—Two hours after he had started work on a new job at the Boston & Maine railroad shops here today, William Powell, an Englishman, 34 years of age, was killed by being run over by a freight car. The wheels of the car took off both his legs, death shortly following. Powell had no relatives in this country.

LOWELL SHUTS OUT
FALL RIVER IN 1ST

F. River	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	4	3
Lowell	1	0	0	0	1	2	3	x		7	6	1

Lowell and Fall River met in a double header at Spaulding park this afternoon and there were present about 1300 baseball fans. Finneran opened the game for Lowell and started off in fine form. Daly did the backstop work and Connolly comprised the battery for the Fall River outfit. Both Umpires Stafford and O'Brien were on hand and called the game promptly at 2 o'clock.

The lineup for the first game was:

Lowell	Fall River
Clemens, cf	cf, Ferrin
Miller, 2b	ss, Carg
Daly, c	1b, Catterson
Magee, 1b	cf, Howard
Halstein, 1b	1b, Devine
DeGroff, rf	2b, Campbell
Aubrey, ss	3b, Mulvey
McCann, p	c, Connolly
	p, Johnson

Ferrin opened the game with a grounder to Miller and was thrown out at first. Magee pulled down Carg's liner. Catterson walked and took third when Halstein threw wildly to Miller after Finneran had caught the runner off the base. Howard fled out to Clemens.

Clemens singled to centre. Miller laid down a perfect bunt to Devine, but Campbell muffed the throw. Clemens went to third and Miller to second on the error. Daly jammed the bases when Johnson hit him. Magee scored Clemens with a sacrifice fly to Ferrin. Halstein and DeGroff were both victims of infield outs.

Lowell 1, Fall River 0.

Fall River got a man on in the second. After Devine had fled to Magee and Campbell had grounded to Finneran, Mulvey singled to centre. Connolly, however, was called out on strikes.

Catterson featured with three put-outs in the second. Aubrey, Dee and Finneran all fled out to this player.

Lowell 1, Fall River 0.

Score: Lowell 1, Fall River 0. Johnson started the third with a fly to right which DeGroff gathered in. Ferrin was hit and took second on Carg's out. Catterson was an easy victim with his grounder to Finneran.

Clemens fled out to Howard. Magee gave Catterson another putout with his fly to right and Daly was thrown out by Johnson.

Score: Lowell 1, Fall River 0.

After Howard had grounded to Aubrey in the fourth Devine hit to left for a two-bagger. Magee made a great attempt to get the ball. Campbell was thrown out by Dee and Mulvey went out. Miller to Halstein.

Lowell went out in order. Devine made a putout unassisted on Magee's grounder. Halstein was thrown out by Carg and DeGroff popped an easy one to Campbell.

Score: Lowell 1, Fall River 0.

The fifth was a fast inning. Connolly put up a high one which Dee took. Halstein made a nice catch of Johnson's high foul. Dee also caught Ferrin's foul fly.

Aubrey was called out on strikes. Dee was safe when Carg lost his grounder. Dee stole second. Finneran fled out to Ferrin in deep left centre and Clemens put up one to Devine.

Score: Lowell 1, Fall River 0.

Fall River looked dangerous in the seventh but was retired without a score. Devine was thrown out by Finneran, but Campbell drew a base on balls. Mulvey singled to centre, advancing Campbell to third, but was thrown out when he tried to make second. Finneran handed Connolly four wide ones.

On the first half pitched Connolly stole second. Johnson fled to DeGroff.

DeGroff walked and went to second

Secures Writ of Habeas Corpus—Eleventh Hour Move to Defeat Thaw's Lawyers

SHERBROOKE, Que., Aug. 30.—Harry K. Thaw will be produced in court here again Tuesday morning next on a writ of habeas corpus obtained today in behalf of Chief of Police Boudreau of Cookcook, who arrested him after his escape from Matetan.

Eleventh Hour Move

Superior Judge Hutchinson granted the writ on the application of Samuel Jacobs, chief counsel for the New York state interests. It was an eleventh hour move taken to defeat Thaw's lawyers, who have succeeded in keeping him in jail safe from the immigration authorities. Those of the Thaw lawyers who were in town, Charles D. White and Harry Fraser, bitterly opposed the application, but Judge Hutchinson said he would thresh the matter out in open court, Tuesday morning.

Boudreau prayed for the writ on the ground that as the original captor of Thaw he might be liable to damage should Thaw's arrest prove illegal. William T. Jerome, who worked out this latest attack, was jubilant. He hopes that the writ will be sustained and that on Tuesday Thaw will be in the hands of the department of immigration for deportation to Vermont.

Came Trooping Back

Immigration officers who had left Sherbrooke yesterday came trooping back to town early today on the strength of a report that counsel representing the state of New York had set on foot a movement to get Harry K. Thaw in court perhaps today on a writ of habeas corpus, thus taking a step his own counsel had abandoned on Wednesday after a court battle.

Any citizen may apply for a writ of habeas corpus when he thinks a prisoner is detained illegally and as Thaw is locked in the Sherbrooke jail on an

GALVESTON, Texas, Aug. 30.—Eight members of the crew of the British oil steamer Herbert Wylie, now in port with 40,000 gallons of crude oil from Tampico, were arrested yesterday on complaints of Captain W. E. Phillips, the ship's master. Captain Phillips reported that the mutinous members of the crew had set fire to the vessel while moored at a pier under quarantine regulations and had cut the mooring cables of the ship. The fire was extinguished before serious damage was done.

HEN THIEVES ARE BUSY LABOR DAY PROGRAM

They Cleaned Coop on Berkeley Avenue

"If they want the rooster now they can call for it and I will give it to them," said Mr. Abbott Lawrence of 53 Berkeley avenue, when he was told this noon that the contents of his hen coop with the exception of the rooster had been taken away by robbers during the night. The party who made a hasty but fruitful visit to Mr. Lawrence's hen coop last night may now call at the latter's home and take possession of the rooster before it is put on the chopping block.

Mr. Abbott reported to the police this morning that his hen coop in the rear of his home had been entered by robbers last night and the four beautiful hens which were peacefully enjoying a night's rest, were unceremoniously disturbed from the land of slumber and taken away. The rooster was left unmolested, probably because a rooster always put up more or less of a fight, and creates considerable noise. The intruders were aware of this fact and they made a quick exit with the four pullets, leaving the king of the place behind. Mr. Lawrence in conversation with the writer this noon said he wished his neighbors as well as his keepers in general to take notice of this theft for their own benefit, for hen thieves are numerous in Lowell and they are conducting the business on a large scale.

SPECIAL WRITER AND AUTHOR MURDERED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—William L. Alderfer, a special writer and author, was stabbed to death last night in his home in Chevy Chase, Md., a suburb, and William J. Fisher, connected with the Isthmian canal commission and for ten years a boarder in the Alderfer home, was arrested today. The tragedy, according to the police, resulted from Fisher's interference when Alderfer sought to chastise his 17-year-old adopted daughter.

THE OHIO RIVER
SCENE OF TRAGEDY

Boat Was Towing Fleet of Barges When Boilers Exploded—Injured Rescued From River

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 30.—Captain Thomas Flaherty, Pilot Harry Donaldson and six of the crew of the towboat Alice were killed this morning when the boilers of the Alice exploded in the Ohio river at Coropolis, Pa. Six other men were injured.

Many of the crew were never known to their companions or the officers of the boat and for that reason difficulty was experienced in getting a complete list of the dead.

The Alice, a towboat belonging to a sand company of Pittsburgh, was towing a fleet of barges and was within a thousand feet of the lock at dam number 2 when the boilers let go.

The men who were not instantly killed or badly injured rushed forward but so quickly did the boat settle that within ten minutes nothing but her stacks were visible and the survivors were struggling in the stream.

Body Taken From Hull

Later in the day the body of Mrs. Mills, a chambermaid, was recovered from the shattered hull of the boat. One of the boilers was located in the sand in Neville island, fully 1600 feet away.

Several boats put off from the shore and rescued the injured. Of the crew of 14 men not one is known to have escaped death or injury.

SPEAKER CLARK
RAPS REPUBLICANS

In Speech at Unity, Me.—Declares They Have Not Worked for the Country's Interests

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 30.—Speaker Champ Clark arrived from Washington today to deliver speeches at Unity this afternoon and at Skowhegan tonight in the interest of William R. Pattangall, the democratic candidate for congressman from the third Maine district at the special election on Sept. 8. He arrived on the New York express.

Belts Republicans

After devoting some time to outlining the policies of the democratic party in the future, Mr. Clark, in his speech at Unity said:

"We declared that the works of the republicans for 16 years were not for the best interests of the country and should not be satisfactory to the people. The people took us at our word and thrust the republicans into outer darkness, where there is weeping and gnashing of teeth and a great deal of profane swearing."

"At Baltimore, in our platform, we made a multitude of promises. In my judgment the most important promise made at Baltimore was to revise the tariff downward. That promise is almost an accomplished fact. Our tariff bill will in all human probability be upon the statute books before the middle of September. In my judgment it is a good tariff bill."

"It is not precisely as I would have written it if I had carte blanche to write a tariff bill. It is not exactly as anyone would have written it if he

FOOTBALL SEASON IS AT HAND

And the Coach Will be King on Campus and Gridiron — Yale
Plans Early Start

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—During the next three months the football coach will rule supreme upon college campus and gridiron. To the candidates for places on the eleven his word will be law, and to the non-playing student he will be the one person in whose hand rests the future of the university. The position of football coach is not one in which all is accolade and glory. The task of developing a winning team calls for serious and hard work, even under the most favorable conditions. Even with an abundance of satisfactory material the judgment and thought that must be given to the selection of just the right combination is but a small portion of the work. The first and second teams must be carefully drilled and trained and in the end, if defeat comes in the final and big game of the season, the coach reaps all the blame. If the reverse is true his share of the glory is small and fleeting.

Without the football coach, however, football would fall far short of the scientific game that it is today. Every college and university has either an alumni coaching system or an alumnus of some other institution teaching the young men how to tackle, dodge, fall on the ball, and the numberless other individual and combination secrets that go to complete the gridiron education of the player. Of the several hundred colleges in various parts of the United States less than fifteen per cent try to play football with the coach left out. Even the leading high schools and preparatory academies have their paid coaches.

All the football mentors will have their charges at work within the next two or three weeks and the land will resound with the thud of boot against ball and body against turf. Yale has planned an early start, and Captain Ketchum will take a squad of players to Stoughton, Mass., on Monday for preliminary practice before the New Haven university formally opens its doors for another scholastic year. Coach Houghton, of Harvard, is more deliberate in his habits as a champion, and he will not gather his charges about him at Cambridge until September 15. Captain Storer, however, saw to it that every promising player took at least one football away with him at the beginning of the summer vacation, and the men doubtless were instructed to report in condition if they hoped to make the eleven of 1913.

Cornell will start its second season September 15 under the coaching of Dr. At Sharpe. Under the new regime at Ithaca Cornell can be counted upon as a factor in eastern football this season. Princeton, too, plans for an early start, while the advent of George Brooke at Pennsylvania will certainly live up to the Quaker campaign.

In the middle west Coach Stagg, of Chicago, hopes to recapture the conference championship. Coach Yost, of Michigan, is looking forward to eastern triumphs, while Illinois hopes for great improvement under its new football mentor, Bob Zuppke.

OF LEADERS IN NATIONAL LEAGUE RACE

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Baseball players take their hats off to Robinson, the Giant maker. He's the chief coach of the New York Giants and, next to McGraw, the manager, is the most valuable man on the firing line in building up the team and keeping it at top notch. Robinson is generally seen on the third base line during a game, and his judgment is considered the best. Robinson is here shown with the regular lineup of the Giants as they will likely face the Athletics in the world's series provided those two clubs are the respective winners of the pennants in the National and American leagues. Robinson is an ex-catcher and was with McGraw in Baltimore thirteen years ago. He has coached the Giants for the past several seasons.

FOURTEEN CARS IN TROPHY RACE

Big Crowd on Hand to Cheer the
Starters at Elgin—Bill Endicott
First to Get Away

ELGIN, Ill., Aug. 30.—Fourteen cars got away this morning in the annual 201 mile grind over the eight-mile course here for the Elgin National trophy. A larger field and larger machines than appeared in yesterday's race added to the interest in the contest, and a crowd exceeding in numbers that which broke through the militia lines at the finish yesterday was on hand to cheer the starters.

Marmon, Joe Dawson, Erwin Special, Erwin Berghoff, Mason, William Haupt, Esota, Harry Grant, Keaton, Bob Burman, Mercer, Ralph De Palma, Nyberg, Harry Madden, Veli, Otto Henderson, Nyberg, Harry Endicott. The Delta car, which Dawson piloted into second place yesterday, was withdrawn. One of the wheels has a cracked hub and two have buckled rims from running on flat tires. Dawson, De Palma, Grant and Anderson were the favorites with the crowd.

Athletes and Athletics

Wrenn and Maloney seem to be as far off as ever from proving which swimmer is the better. Maloney wants to swim in salt water, and Wrenn prefers to show his speed in this vicinity, so there you are. Each is doing a lot of talking, and it would seem that they had better get together and make some kind of a compromise or quit talking.

With the Lowell pitchers going well the 1913 pennant for first position in the New England league race looks assured for Manager Gray's men. The pitching box has been the local team's weakness from the start of the season, and now that this weak point has been converted into one of the strongest twirling stiffs on the circuit the fans need not worry much over the outcome of the struggle. Finneran, Zieser, Henderson and Maybom are all working in tiptop form.

The report that Jack Johnson has at last agreed to fight Sam Langford has not been confirmed yet, but it looks as though the bout would take place soon. Johnson is in somewhat straightened circumstances and needs money badly, or he would never consent to swap punches with the Boston Tar Baby.

The cancellation of the Army-Navy football game is causing a great deal of comment among football critics. This game has been a factor in the gridiron season for so long that its loss would be felt by the sporting public. There is a strong possibility that the game may be played after all, for all the grudge on either side of the argument are up in arms over the cancellation.

With the close of the baseball season

son drawing near, the new edition of football rules are being snapped up and devoured by the devotees of the plucky sport. Already orders have come forth from the heads of the big university camps, and before another month has passed many diamonds will be overlaid by the goal posts.

Outfielder Reig, the outfielder President McAleer is reported to have paid $10,000 for, will have a tough time breaking into the Red Sox outer garden. With Hooper playing one of his best seasons and Reig after the same old reliable Lewis looks to be the man picked for dismissal if the youngster makes good. Reig is at present with the St. Paul club of the American association.

Lowell plays two games away from home next week, and both of these contests will be played at the Lynn grounds. Lynn plays here on Wednesday and Lowell goes there on Tuesday and Friday. Worcester will appear at Spaulding park on Thursday, and New Bedford will be the attraction at the ball park on Saturday.

Who says we won't win that pennant? Nothing but accidents of the worst nature can keep the flag away from the local team this year, and we are not even afraid of the bad baseball break. With a lead of over two games over Worcester and both Lawrence and Portland going stale after their flash in the pan we fall to see where Lowell can be beaten out of the bag.

The drafting season closes tomorrow and up to date the majors have taken none of the Lowell players. This fact is fully appreciated by the management, for the drafting price paid for players is only $1200, and seldom is a man sold for a sum. The drafting price has been raised from $750.

The reserved seats at the local office which have been on sale for the game in Lawrence Monday morning have nearly all been disposed of. A large crowd will also accompany the down river team on its trip to Lowell in the afternoon. Pleper assures the Lawrence fans that his team is still in the race, and enthusiasm has taken a brace in Lawrence since the double header with Portland.

Young Sheppard of New York has been selected to appear before the members of the Tri-State A. A. this fall. This boxer defeated Jimmy Walsh over in the big city last winter and has a big reputation. Sheppard will post a substantial side bet to beat any 122-pounder in the country.

Berkett has four hard games before him. Today Worcester plays two games with Lawrence, and on Monday Portland will appear twice on the Worcester diamond. By the same token, Lawrence will be a tired team when they meet Manager Gray's men on Monday.

MEXICAN REBELS FAIL TO GET AMERICAN AMMUNITION TO CARRY ON STRUGGLE

MEXICAN REBELS WAITING TO RECEIVE ARMS

This picture was taken at Sabinas, Mexico, and shows rebels gathered at the railroad station waiting to receive arms so that they can join the con-stitutionalists in fighting Huerta's soldiers. Carranza and the other rebel leaders had urged the United States to allow the free importation of arms and ammunition to Mexico so that they could the more quickly fight it out with the federals. President Wilson has ordered a strict embargo placed on all arms and ammunition consigned to rebels or federals.

He afterward returned to Maine but came back 40 years ago and settled in Westford. He has been married 66 years and his estimable wife is as hale and hearty as himself. He has two children living. Capt. Downs is an authority on the early history of Westford and the neighboring towns and as a story teller has few equals.

Grooming Day

MARBLEHEAD, Aug. 30.—Grooming day for the six souther yachts which will sail in the German-American races next week found all of the boats on the ways in the hands of workmen today. Five of the yachts were hauled out at local yards, while the Sprig was hauled out at Manchester, on the other side of Salem bay. Although the underbodies and sides of the boats looked bright the polished surfaces were given another rubbing by experienced woodworkers, and two plane polishers spent the entire day in smoothing the hull of the Sprig. The yachts will remain out of water until after a few hours before the first day's race is started at 11 a. m.

JUST WHAT YOU PAY FOR

The other day a well-dressed man was passing on the street, and he friend stopping him says, "Bill, that's a nice suit you have on." Bill answered, "Yes, I like it very much." The friend says, "Look like it was made for you. What did it cost?" Bill told him and the fellow says, "That's more than I pay for a suit. I never saw one like it for $15." Bill replied, "You look it, Jim, begging your pardon." Jim says, "I guess you're right, Bill. A fellow gets usually what he pays for in this world." Did you ever stop to think of that, that a fellow usually gets what he pays for? It is true in everything you buy, and in no goods is it more noticeable than in clothes. When you wear your clothes they are always on exhibition and your friends see them, you bet. The difference between Bill and Jim is that Bill buys good clothes and always appears well dressed, while Jim invests in cheap ones, and, as Bill told him, "he looks it." Now the queer part of this comparison is that in the long run Jim's clothes cost him more than Bill's. I make Bill's.

IMPERATOR AT DOCK SHOWING LIST FROM WATER IN HOLD AFTER FIRE

Capt. HANS RUSER

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—After the fire on board the Imperator, the world's greatest ship, Hamburg-American officials announced that the mammoth ship would sail on schedule time. Hardly had the flames died out and the smoke cleared away before the company had men at work scrubbing and cleaning and pumping the water out of the hold, which gave the ship a heavy list to starboard. The painters were put to work, and the giants of the seas was soon in as good condition as before. When the time came for her to sail, only forty-eight hours after the blaze, there was hardly any evidence of the fire. The ship was again fully provisioned with 50,000 pounds of fresh meat. The blaze, which started in the provision room, cost the life of Second Officer Karl Gobrecht. Captain Hans Ruser said that was the worst feature of the affair, as the blaze itself, although doing perhaps $50,000 damage, was not to be compared in seriousness with the loss of the second officer's life.

VERY SHORT DOCKET Before Judge Enright This Morning

This morning's police court was a short affair with a very limited docket. Half an hour sufficed to clean up all the cases presented before Judge Enright. Michael Korsak, adorned with a blackened optic, stood up and pleaded guilty when his case was called by Clerk Toye. Korsak was charged with drunkenness and a country man of his tried to convince Supt. Welch that he was guilty of an assault. The defendant's wife came to the assistance of her husband and, with great vehemence, declared that her husband was asleep when the other man entered their house with a bottle of whiskey. "I punched him in the eye," she said, "and then put him out of our house." Korsak was fined $15 and allowed a term of two months within which to pay it. John Lyons was given a suspended sentence of two months in the Lowell jail. Lyons was warned by the court that if he again showed up in police court he would receive a direct sentence.

Antonio Baris was foolish enough to think that he had something on Officer Joseph Cassidine when the latter attempted to arrest him. However, notwithstanding Baris' pugilistic efforts he was haled into court this morning and paid a fine of $5 for his drunkenness. Probation Officer Slattery allowed five first offenders to depart without appearing before Judge Enright.

A man named McNally was charged with larceny of $75 from Walter C. Packard on the night of the Firemen's muster. The case was continued.

LIST OF PRECINCT OFFICERS

Announced at City Hall for the Three Political Parties—Other Matters

Commissioner Brown of the finance department has prepared a list of the precinct officers to serve at both the state and city elections, and the same was given to the press at noon, but inasmuch as the list is quite long, it will appear later. There are very few changes from last year's list, but several names were added in order to satisfy the wants of the new party, the progressive. The list contains ten names to each precinct, four republicans, four democrats and two progressives.

The board of harbor and land commissioners through its secretary, William S. McNary, has sent a letter to Mayor O'Donnell, inviting him to attend a meeting of the board to be held in Boston, Sept. 18, for the purpose of discussing and considering the subject of improvements of Massachusetts harbors, rivers, and waterways.

In the letter Mr. McNary says:
The board of harbor and land commissioners cordially requests your attendance at a meeting at the office of the board, room 131, State House, Boston, Mass., on Thursday, September 18, 1913, at 11 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of discussing and considering the subject of improvements of Massachusetts harbors, rivers and waterways and other matters connected therewith.

Charles E. Anderson of the Trades and Labor council paid a visit to city hall this morning and presented the major a very pretty blue badge, requesting his honor to wear the same while reviewing the parade on Labor day.

Going to Montreal
The mayor, who is a member of the American Bar association, will leave in the early part of the week for Montreal, Que., where he will attend the annual reunion of this association, which will be held from Monday to Friday inclusive. This is the first time this reunion has been held in a Canadian city, and it is expected the affair will be largely attended.

Salaries
The salaries paid out at the city treasurer's office at city hall during the present month amount to $70,056.07, while the weekly payroll for the week ending today is $21,571.23.

Park Department
Supt. Kernan of the park department put a dozen men at work cleaning the North common this morning.
It was understood that the Butler Vets would leave the common in the same condition as when they took it, but probably on account of the rain the men were unable to get around to do the work. However, Supt. Kernan wanted the place in a good condition for Sunday, for this morning
he put his men to work.

Trees Struck by Lightning
The severe storm that hovered over this city this morning, caused havoc on the North common. Two large beautiful elm trees on the main walk from the pond to the Casino were struck by lightning and uprooted.
The debris of these beautiful trees was removed this afternoon by employes of the park department. Fortunately there was no one in the vicinity
when the trees were felled.
Supt. Kernan of the park department is being warmly congratulated on the fine result obtained at all the local playgrounds during the summer season. Mr. Kernan spared no time to make the event successful, and it was he who donated the tennis court at the Greenhale school playground, which made so many little hearts happy.

Miss Anne T. Mullaney of the streets and highways office is enjoying a vacation at Hampton beach.
Commissioner Cummings has as his guest, a brother of his wife, Rev. William J. Stanton, S. J., of Leonardtown, Md. The reverend gentleman is well known in Lowell, for a few years ago he preached a mission at St. Peter's church.

We expect the greater volume of business, to more than offset the expense of this contest to repay us, as we would rather sell to 100 people One Dollar's worth each than to 10 people Five Dollar's worth and you can see that a smaller per cent. of profit will mean more to us by selling 100 people than even a larger percentage of profit we could get from selling 10 people. We will give you even more for your money than we have in the past.

WE CAN SAVE YOU MONEY AND ARE READY TO PROVE IT.
